I. The Priority of Praying in the Spirit-Prayer is of such importance that Paul uses words like "all" and "always" to describe our use of it. Regardless of what the occasion is, Paul says to pray in the Spirit. One way of looking at this is to realize that any prayer that is not prayed in the Spirit is a lifeless prayer. So just because you are praying over a meal or saying your bedtime prayers (both being based on routines), don't pray a lifeless prayer.-Realize that God is fully ...

Praying In The Spirit Sermon by Mark Opperman, Ephesians 6 ...

Finally, prayer in the Spirit is always consumed with the spread of the gospel and God's Word. While Paul was in prison, he didn't ask the believers to pray for his release. Led by the Spirit, he sought prayer for God to give him the words to preach and the courage to preach them fearlessly.

Lecture 7, Praying with the Spirit: Many Christians are dissatisfied with their prayer lives. Despite our best intentions, prayer can be awkward and, at times, difficult. We may struggle to focus, find the right words, or develop consistent habits. Fortunately, Romans 8 offers us hope and encouragement.

Praying with the Spirit by Derek Thomas from Romans 8

When you pray in the Spirit, you may not know it, but you could be effectively and supernaturally covering your loved ones or your future with God's protection (while being spared the details that would honestly frighten you). The best part about it is that you can do it as you're pretty much going about your day.
