Elderly Woman's Hilarious Failed Attempt At Restoring A 19th Century Fresco in Borja, Spain (PHOTO) By Katherine Brooks. We've always imagined the work of an art restoration to be a painstaking process involving highly-trained individuals crammed in the basement of a museum, slaving over old texts and using many, many tiny paint brushes. We certainly did not picture an elderly volunteer sneaking around in a church, haphazardly painting over a classical image of Jesus until he resembled ...
